As we are coming to the close of 2021 in a couple of months, — if you could pass on to the office — your correct phone number; an email if you wish to share, so that we can get in touch with you one way or another.

Realizing that some people do not want their cell numbers published, let Lila know and we will keep it in the office only.

Unfortunately COVID— is still with us. So we still need to be careful.

Masks — the Church Council has recommend masks but they ARE NOT REQUIRED. All our members are to feel free to consider what is in their best interest, whether they wish to wear them or not to wear them.

Martin County’s numbers are still a little high. So we will still be vigilant in staying safe

It is also recommended that as the weather permits—those who wish to visit after the service, please do so outside.

Live Streaming— Please bear with us as we try to get the services to you. With changing internet providers, we have had to learn new ropes.

Sunday November 7th—All Saints Sunday

We will remember those who have gone before us.

Bob Olson—is a resident of the Trimont Nursing Home for a while. We wish him a speedy Recovery

CREST— Lunch & Learn— 11-1

A final report on Okoboji Quilt Auction. After receiving the 2 online results the total our group donated came to $1685. There were 171 items for the live auction and 117 online and almost $65,000. was raised to help future campers. Praise God !!!

The Fairmont Hospital Foundation is now raising money to build a flower and vegetable garden beds on the East side of the Lutz Cancer Center. This will be enjoyed by patients and their families.

Our missionaries in Taiwan, Ethan and Sandy Christofferson thank us for our continued support. Sandy has become close to one of their neighbors, teaching her more about Christianity.

November is when we donate items for the Salvation Army and Heaven's Table. Be generous as there is a never ending need. We will also have a thankoffering at our WELCA meeting.

Four ways to seek justice and peace.

1. Love your neighbor as we would love ourselves.
2. Forgive as we have been forgiven by God.
3. Love all of humanity, respecting everyone.
4. Give whatever you can whenever you can, wherever you can.
