PASTOR ANTHONY'S RIPPLES

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Wow! This last month has been a busy one, not just for the farmers who have been prepping and planting their fields. Not just for the teachers and educators who are wrapping up another academic year. But also for your pastors, organists, church custodians, funeral servers, church members, and the surrounding communities. At Circle of Faith alone, we have had 5 funerals in the last month, not to mention all of the other funerals that we have had throughout our communities this spring.

At some of the funerals that we had this month, you may have noticed that during the funeral service the caskets were covered in a giant white bedsheet. That cloth is funeral pall during the service one who has just died was bapthe waters of baptism. At your wearing white, symbolizing that washed pure of your sins Then at the end of your life, we your loved ones that they because God chose you when white cloth that resembled a big called a funeral pall. We use a to remind the living that the loved tized and claimed by God through baptism you were probably you are both clothed in Christ and through the waters of baptism. cover you in white again to remind don't have to worry about you you were baptized, you were therefore clothed with Christ, and now that you are no longer living, they can trust that you are with God, resting in the arms of your savior.

So the next time that you are at a funeral and a funeral pall is used, remember that this is to remind you of their baptism and that they are in God's everlasting care. For the sake of everyone involved, I do however hope and pray that our churches and communities get a break from funerals for a while.

In Christ, Pastor Anthony

A Seminarian's Letters Home

To the membership of Circle of Faith Parish:

Greetings to you all from Evanston, IL! Spring is done now, and it's time to roll out those lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer! Soon, we'll be switching, as a parish, to our summer schedule of weddings, Vacation Bible School, synod assembly, and everything else that goes on during the warmer months. One thing I'm very excited about is Circle of Faith's plan for another adult education series on Wednesday evenings, entitled "Mission on the Prairie". I'll be speaking for the first session, and we have two dynamic people from the Southwestern MN Synod and Luther Seminary coming for the other two. There's more information in this newsletter, so please mark your calendars and plan to come!

We've spent this past year as a parish with the book of Acts, and the story of what the first Christians did when they formed their first communities in Jerusalem and elsewhere – they took food to the widows, they shared their belongings, they healed sick people, and so on. A piece of trivia for you – the book of Acts was written by Luke, the same guy who wrote the Gospel of Luke. Luke's gospel wraps up with Jesus' command to stay where they are, to wait for the Spirit to come. Even after the Spirit came on Pentecost, most people continued to do just that. Yes, the apostles went and roamed around a lot, but most of the Christians stayed right where they lived, and kept on doing the work that the Church does even after the wandering preachers left town. They did that because they recognized that they didn't have to roam far to be the Body of Christ to everybody else – there was plenty that needed doing right there.

That's kind of weird, isn't it? Most of us grew up thinking of "mission" as sending people (or, more often, money) to foreign countries. But there's actually an abundance of opportunity to be the Body of Christ for people around us right where we live – going to another country won't be necessary. We'll be talking a lot about that during the summer adult education classes, so come and find out! You might be surprised where the opportunity to be Christ to somebody else shows up. But maybe that just makes it all the more exciting.

Heading into our summer contemplation of the Church's mission on the prairie, let us pray for God's blessing, using these words:

Almighty God, your Holy Spirit equips the church with a rich variety of gifts. Grant that we may use them to bear witness to Christ in lives that are built on faith and love. Make us ready to live the gospel and eager to do your will, so that we may share with all your church in the joys of eternal life; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen. [ELW, Congregational Ministries]

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Your fellow member and pilgrim, Carl P. Rabbe, M.Div.

ADDRESS SERVICE REQUESTED

US Postage Paid Non-Profit Organization Permit No. 5 Welcome, MN 56181

Henry Lyte (1793–1847) was the pastor of a small, poor church in a small village in Devonshire, England. He was an award-winning poet and originally studied to be a physician until he felt the call to the ministry. He is the person much credited with the saying, "It is better to wear out than to rust out!" He had been a frail person most of his life, and with his parish being on the English coast he finally developed Tuberculosis and asthma. He kept on working and ministering until he became too ill to preach. At that point he planned to go to Italy to recuperate but never arrived at his destination. He died enroute while in Nice, France, just three weeks after he had penned the hymn, "Abide With Me". The inspiration for the hymn came from the meeting of the two disciples with the Resurrected Christ while on the road to Emmaus. "Abide with us, for it is toward evening." Luke 24:29.

It was first sung at Lyte's own funeral. It was sung at King George VI's funeral, his daughter Elizabeth II's wedding, and at Mother Teresa of Calcutta's funeral. Every day for over 100 years the bells of his church (All Saints in Lower Brixham, Devonshire) have rung out the tune of "Abide With Me".
